‡ After review of the investigation and evidence gathered, Equity Officer determines whether there is a sufficient basis to proceed with the

Appeals under 600.030, 600.040, and 600.050

Appeals are limited to the following grounds:

- a. A procedural irregularity that affected the outcome of the matter (e.g., material deviation from established procedure, etc.);
- b. To consider new evidence that was not reasonably available at the time the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal was made that could affect the outcome of the matter;
- c. The Title IX Coordinator / Equity (HR) Officer, Investigator(s), or decision-maker(s) had a conflict of interest or bias for or against Complainants or Respondents generally or the individual Complainant or Respondent that affected the outcome of the matter; or
- d. The sanctions fall outside the range typically imposed/P <</MCID 20>> BL

Appellate Process

f Appellate Officer will review Request for Appeal:

- o Is request timely?
- o Is appeal based on articulated bases for appeal?
- o If viewed in light most favorable to appealing Party, does the appeal state grounds that could result in an adjusted finding or sanction?

f If answer to these questions is no, appeal will be rejected.

f Decision to accept or reject an appeal will be made in writing within 15 days; otherwise, deemed accepted.

f If accepted, decision on appeal must be rendered within 10 business days from accepting request for appeal.

f If accepted, Appellate Officer must render written decision.
